

Contents

Acknowledgements iv

Introduction xiii

Notes to the Reader xxv

Overshot 1-508

Overshot Overview 1-29

- “Typical” coverlet 1
- Patterns 2-3
- Monk’s Belt version 3
- Origin? 3-4
- Quantity 4
- Dating 4, 15
- Pattern names 4-7
- Drafts, early 6-7
- Characteristics 8
 - Yarns 8-11
 - Weight of a coverlet 10-11
 - Color and dyes 11-15
 - Patterning 15-16
 - Size of a coverlet 16
 - Panels 2, 3, 16-18
 - Selvages 18
 - Borders 18-19, 20-23
 - Squaring 19-20
 - Pattern size and proportion 19-20
 - Joining Panels 18, 20
 - Finishing warp ends 20
 - Fringes 23-26
 - Quality, perfection 26-27
 - Aesthetics 27-29

Conclusion of overview 29

Monk’s Belt 30-37

- Basic characteristics 31
- Blocks, introduction 31-32, 33
- Opposites 32
- Tabby - defined 32
- Tabby - determining 32, 35
- Yarns 32
- Treadling 32
- Early draft interpretations 33-37
 - Threading 34
 - Treadling 34

As-drawn-in 35

Early ways vs. today’s 35-36

Doublers 36-37

Stroke drafts 36-37

Overshot: 4 blocks, 4 harnesses 38-92

- Theory and structure 39
- Half-tones 39
- Block orders possible 39
- With adjacent blocks 40
 - Theory and structure 40-42
- On-opposites 42-44
 - Theory and structure 44
- Opposites, area(s) of 44-46

Early drafts 46-64

- Types and how to interpret 46-54
 - Very Specific 47
 - Specific 48
 - Paired Numbers 49
 - Stroke-type 50
 - Notation variations 51
- General information 51-53
- Tie-ups 53-54
- Treadling
 - As-drawn-in 54
 - “Squaring” a pattern 54-56
 - Rose fashion 57-58
 - Variations 59-64

Other Characteristics 64-115

- Tabby 64-71
 - Plain Weave 65
 - Double Tabby 66-71
 - Variations 71
- Doublers, split and unsplit 72-81
- Symmetry 82-88
 - Broad-narrow 82-88
 - Perfection 82-88
- Errors 88-92
 - On early drafts 88-90
 - Interpretations 90, 92

Is It Old? 93-115

- “Transitional” period 94-96
- Contemporary weavers/weaving 94, 96
- “Is It Old” Gallery with comments 97-115

Multi-Harness Overshot 116-143

- Introduction 117
- Variety of structures 117-119
- Gallery with technical explanations 119-143

Overshot Gallery 144-458

- Introduction 145
- Pattern Groups
 - Monks Belt, 2 blocks 146-155, 156
 - Monks Belt-like, 4 blocks 156-159
 - Blocky 160-180
 - Both motifs the same 180-189
 - Two simple motifs 190-197
 - Directional 198-205
 - Stairstep separators 206-208
 - “Star-tables” 208-223
 - Motifs with shared blocks 224-230
 - Unusual as-drawn-in treadling 231
 - Diamonds 232-241
 - Simple tables and crosses 242-247
 - Simple tables and diamonds 247-260
 - Table and simple cross, evolving 261-270
 - Pine Burr types 271-280
 - Pine Burr-like 281-284
 - 4 blocks on opposites 285-286
 - Simple and fancy tables 287-299
 - Evolving 300-307
 - Tables/radiating motif 308-321
 - Leaves 322-344
 - Rose/star clusters and table 345-367
 - Variations 368-383
 - Chariot Wheels 384-412
 - Circle Patterns 413-458

Dated Overshot Coverlets 459-497

- Introduction 461
- Gallery of coverlets in
 - chronological order 462-486
- Cross-stitched date 487
- Letters woven in/variations 488-489
- How dates were woven 489-492, 477
- Concluding notes 492-497
- Photos of dates 494-495
- Contemporary interpretations 496-497

Overshot endnotes and credits 498-508Twill II 1-154*Introduction II 1-2*Straight Twill II 2-10

- Four harness basics II 2-3
- Gallery II 4-10

Point Twill and “Herring Bone” II 10

- Four harness basics II 10
- Gallery II 11-14

Extended Point Twill II 15

- Four harness basics II 15
- Gallery II 15-19

Broken Twill II 20

- Gallery II 20-21

Multi-harness Point Twill

- Basics II 22-27 (33, 37)
- Gallery II 28-38
- Patterns from early draft books II 38-55
- Variations in tie-ups
 - on Fancy Twills II 56
 - Basics II 56
 - Gallery II 57-59
 - Patterns from early draft books II 60-68
- Fancy tie-ups creating stars, etc. II 69-88
- Turned Twill-like tie-ups II 88-95
- Brocade-like patterns II 96-109
- Extended Point Twill, multi-harness II 110-114
- Broken, multi-harness Twill II 115

Twills in blocks

- 2 block, 10 harness II 116-121

Point Twill in blocks, fancy

- 2 block, 12-20 harnesses II 122-139
- 3 block, 12 harnesses II 140-141
- 3 block, 10 harnesses II 142-142, 146-151
- 3 block, 16 harnesses II 144-145

Transition to Turned Twill II 152Twill Endnotes and credits II 153*Turned Twill, Turned Satin, Combination Weaves II 155-218*Introduction II 157

- Overview II 157-160

Turned Twill

- Theory, structure and variations II 161-163
- Early drafts II 164
 - Structure variations II 164-168
- Diaper Coverlets vs. Damask Diaper
 - Early terms and ways II 168-169

Turned Satin

- Structure II 170-172

Combination Weaves

- Turned Twill and Turned Satin plus
Point Twills II 173-177

Gallery

- Turned Twill Coverlets II 178-192, 194-205
- Turned Satin II 193
- Combination Weaves II 206-209
- Drawdowns of early patterns II 210-217

Chapter endnotes and credits II 218

Double Weave II 219-322

Structure, simplified II 221-225

Historical context II 225-226

Overview II 225-232

- Number of blocks used II 226
- Plain Weave ground II 226-227
- Patterning II 227-229
- Yarns II 229
- Borders, fringes and seams II 229-230
- Combining blocks II 229, 234
- “Squaring” a pattern II 230
- Sett, pattern repeats, panels II 230
- Errors? II 230-232

Structure in Detail II 232-234

Early draft books II 234-235

Early drafts, interpreted II 235-237

- Errors, doublers and tie-ups II 237-240

Gallery II 241-322

- Introduction II 241
- Four and five blocks, no combining II 242-263
- Four blocks, combining II 264-267
- Five blocks, combining II 268-270
- Checkerboard-with-dots patterns II 271-274
- Snowball patterns II 275-303
- Blossom patterns II 304-309
- “Framed” patterns II 310-319

Double Weave endnotes and credits II 321-322

Just Patterns or Orphaned Patterns meant to be woven in Double Weave, Turned Twill or Turned Satin II 323-350

Introduction II 325

Early sources used II 325

- Inspiration? II 325-326

Patterns, Patterns, Patterns II 326-349

- From checkerboards II 326-328
- From diamonds II 329-331
- Columnar patterns II 332-334
- Intricately combined patterns II 334-335
- Framed patterns II 336-341, 348-349
- Bold and contemporary looking II 342-344
- Unusualities II 344-347
- From sketch to drawdown
 - John Landis’ method II 347-349

Just Patterns endnotes and credits II 350

Summer and Winter II 351-403

Brief description II 353

- Comparison to other weaves II 353
- Name origin II 354-355
- Early Draft II 355

Overview of the coverlets II 355

- Number of blocks II 355
 - Combining blocks II 355-356
- Stereotypical coverlet II 356
- The coverlets
 - Yarns and Patterning II 356
 - Quantity woven II 357
 - Borders and fringes II 357
 - Errors II 357
 - Old vs new and
 - “Rules” and appearance II 357-358
 - Background appearance II 358
 - Units and half-units II 358
 - History speculation II 358
- Structure in detail II 360
 - Background area, floats & ties II 360
 - Compared to Overshot II 360-361
 - Tie-downs or binders II 361
 - Floats II 361
 - Number of harnesses needed II 361
 - 20th century version II 362
 - Units and half-units II 362
- Early drafts II 363
 - Determining tie-up and treadles II 363-364
 - Looms used? II 364
 - Number of blocks used II 364-365
 - Did blocks combine? II 364-365, II 397-401
 - Tie-ups and treadles II 364-365
 - Interpreting drafts II 365-368
 - Treadling II 367-368

- Contemporary treadling variations II 368-370
- Summary II 370-371

Summer and Winter Gallery

- Introduction II 371
- Coverlets II 372-401
 - Diamond patterns II 372-373
 - Enlarged star or fancy table and star pattern II 374-386
 - Wheel patterns II 386-392
 - Wheel variations,
 - “Rose in Bloom” II 392-396
 - With combined blocks II 397-401

Summer and Winter endnotes and credits II 402-403

Star and Diamond II 405-482Introduction II 407

Overview of

- Structure and patterns II 407-409
- Coverlet details,
 - Blocks, yarns, sett, etc. II 409-412
- The variety of structures II 412-413
- Two approaches to drafting II 413-416
 - Tie-downs explained II 414-415
 - Combining blocks II 416
- Structures and variations II 416-426
 - Commonalities II 417
 - Tied structures II 417-424
 - I. Odd number of ends per block II 417-419
 - II. With brocade-like areas II 419-421
 - III. Combining structures II 421
 - IV. Even number of ends per block II 421-422
 - V. Tied variation II 422-423
 - VI. "Borrowed" tie downs II 423-424
- Other Structures II 424-426
 - VII. Discrete blocks, no overlapping II 424-425
 - VIII. Discrete blocks, staggered edges II 425-426
- Conclusion II 426

Gallery Prologue II 426-434

Peter Stauffer, early weaver

His coverlets, sampler and pattern book
compared II 428-434

Star and Diamond Gallery II 434-481

- Group I II 434-452
- Group II II 453-459
- Group III II 460-462
- Group IV II 463-465
- Group V II 466-469
- Group VI II 470-473
- Group VII II 474-477
- Group VIII II 478-481

Conclusion II 481Star and Diamond endnotes and credits II 482*Miscellaneous: Ribbed, Weft-faced and Honeycomb-like Coverlets II 483-517*Introduction: Strange bedfellows II 485*Ribbed coverlets II 485-496

- Structure II 486-487, 491, 492, 495
- Gallery II 488-496
 - Type I II 488-494
 - Type II II 494-496

Boundweave orWeft-faced Plain Weave II 497-507

- Structure II 497-499
 - Early reference II 497
- Coverlet characteristics II 499
- How to read these drawdowns II 499
- Gallery II 500-507

Honeycomb II 508-516

- Defined II 508
- Characteristics II 508
- Early drafts II 508-511
- Structure II 509-511
 - "Dimity" II 509-511
- Gallery II 512-516
 - Four and eight harness honeycomb

Miscellaneous endnotes and credits II 517Motifs II 519-538*Introduction II 521-523

- Number of motifs for a pattern II 521
- Structures II 522-523

How to read the Motif Charts II 523The Charts II 524-537

1. Separators II 524
2. Even checkerboards II 524
3. Uneven checkerboards II 524
4. Simple tables, 2 block, even II 525
5. Simple tables, 2 block, uneven II 525
6. Fancy tables, 2, 3, 4, blocks II 526
7. Crosses II 526
8. Crosses Plus II 527
9. Diamonds II 527
10. Diamonds, blocks combine II 527
11. Radiating II 528
12. Radiating, Leaves II 529
13. Stars and their Roses II 530
14. Star-like motifs II 530
15. Simple motifs, blocks combine II 531
16. Wheels from crosses II 532
17. Wheels/ Star or Rose center II 533
18. Snowballs II 534
19. Fancy Snowballs II 534
20. Fancier Snowballs II 535

- 21. Eight-pointed stars II 535
- 22. Eight pointed stars/brocade-like II 536
- 23. Eight-pointed stars from
Star and Diamond patterns II 536
- 24. Flowers from Star and Diamond patterns
II 537

Motifs endnotes and credits II 538

Trees and Churches II 539-558

Overview

- Trees on coverlets II 541
- Crossed pine trees II 541-542
- Weave structures used II 543-544
- On borders and more II 544
- Columnar patterns II 544
- Churches II 545
- Upright and side trees
Treadling described II 545-546

From one motif, a variety of trees II 547-554

- Snowballs II 547-550
- Roses II 550-551
- Roses and Snowballs II 551
- Tiny Diamonds II 552
- Crosses II 552-553
- Blossom-like motifs II 553
- Eight-pointed stars II 554
- Miscellaneous II 554

Churches

- From early draft books II 555-556

Trees and Churches endnotes and credits
II 557-558

Evolution of Patterning II 559-594

Origins of the theory II 561

A flight of fancy

- Two block Overshot to four II 561-564
- Evolution of structure II 563-564
- Keeping the old with the new II 564

Four block Overshot and how it grows

- Blocky patterns/ opposite and adjacent blocks
II 565-566
- Checkerboards to Stars II 566
- Stars to Roses II 567
 - Patterns grow II 567-568
 - Star-tables II 568-569
- Checkerboards to simple tables II 569
 - Getting fancier II 570
 - And fancier II 571
- Simple tables, stars or roses, and separator
II 572-574
- Stars to Chariot Wheels II 574-576

- Other Chariot Wheels II 577
- Simple tables and cross
 - One branch II 578
 - Another branch II 579
 - To a Pine Burr variation II 580-581
 - A grand circle route II 581-584
 - Missing link II 581-582
 - And another route, cross emphasis
II 584-588
 - Radiating II 585-586
 - Leaves II 586-588
 - Directional patterns II 588
 - Patterns when blocks combine II 588-592
 - Very simple crosses evolve II 588-589
 - From a rose to a fancy snowball II 590-592

Conclusion

- Pattern Evolution: by choice or chance?
II 592-593

Epilogue

- How does an art grow? II 593

Evolution of Patterning endnotes and credits
II 594

An Annotated Bibliography:

Early pattern books and early drafts
II 595-615

Overview of source material used II 597-598

Books used for this study II 599-610
(shown in chronological order)

Draft collections used II 610-614

Annotated Bibliography endnotes and credits
II 615

Bibliography II 616